

Throughout the Covid-19 pandemic we continued to bring quality arts activities to our communities digitally with our participatory arts programme, reaching residents in Mitcham, Merton and further afield.

12 Community projects
(including 5 new projects)

3715

Individual experiences

- Older people's workshops (33.33%)
- Youth Workshops (50%)
- Adult wellbeing workshops (8.33%)
- Artistic programme activities (8.33%)

251 Workshops delivered

Beneficiaries 332

3000+

Audiences online

Artists & practitioners given employment 17

Beneficiaries from Ethnically Diverse backgrounds 50%

Collaborations with local organisations pan Merton 7

Breakdown of turnover £82,781

- LB Merton (38.66%)
- Trusters & Foundations (44.22%)
- Earned Income (8.19%)
- Miscellaneous Income (7.39%)
- Donations (1.55%)

For every £1 awarded from LB Merton Attic levers a further £1.59 into the borough

Feedback

"The sessions have not only be very uplifting but so enjoyable. So good for the spirit."

"Having virtually isolated for a year they have also provided me with structure in my seemingly never-ending weeks."

"a vehicle for expressing oneself creatively"

"This is amazing! Thank you. Such a beautiful poem"

"Brings out the 25 yr old in us"

"Knowing that your ideas are going to be listened to and not laughed at or... belittled."

"Just wanted to say a big thank you for teaching us on zoom, I know I haven't been there every week and I know I'm not a fan of drama however I have loved seeing you most Saturdays it's sort of become a routine!"

"It was clear that the in-person sessions were having a clear impact on the student's wellbeing".

"The volunteer from Jigsaw4U said after session that she really enjoyed the range of activities that we delivered and she felt that there was a space for the participants to be vulnerable and that this was very well held. She noted XXX's vulnerability in session and said that she clearly felt 'safe' to be herself and was able to receive the support she needed"